

1. Entire Agreement: Except as otherwise reflected in a contract regarding the subject matter hereof which has been signed by authorized representatives of Buyer and Seller, the terms and conditions which govern the sale of the goods by Delaware Valley Corporation are limited to the terms and conditions specified herein, and formation of any contract of sale is expressly made conditional on Buyer's consent to these terms, which constitute the sole, entire and exclusive agreement between Buyer and Seller in this transaction, and supercede all prior discussions, proposals, negotiations, representations and agreements. Seller objects to and rejects any additional, different or inconsistent terms in Buyer's purchase order or other documents from Buyer, and shipment pursuant to Buyer's orders containing additional, different or inconsistent terms. No conditions, understandings, or agreements purporting to modify or vary the terms hereof shall be binding unless hereafter made in writing and signed by an authorized representative of each party. This contract is not assignable except with the written consent of Seller. No requirement stated herein that an item be in writing may be waived except by means of a written instrument issued by the party making the waiver. Due to the time critical nature of goods and services, the commencement of work on a Buyers P.O. does not constitute agreement to Buyers terms and conditions. It will be the responsibility of the Buyer to correct any disagreements Buyer may have with Delaware Valley's terms and conditions, which must be mutually agreed and accepted by Delaware Valley and Buyer as signified by a document signed by both parties, and therefore Buyers placement of a P.O. is prima facie evidence that they accept Delaware Valley's terms and conditions over all other terms and conditions.
2. Credit: Credit terms applicable to Buyer's purchases hereunder are net thirty (30) days from the date of Seller's invoice unless otherwise established from time to time by Seller and notified to Buyer. If at any time, in Seller's opinion, the financial responsibility of Buyer becomes impaired or unsatisfactory to Seller, or inadequate to meet Buyer's obligations hereunder, Seller may revise or withdraw any credit terms applicable to Buyer, and Seller may require cash or other satisfactory security before making further shipments to Buyer in addition to any other legal remedy. If Buyer fails to fulfill the applicable terms of payment, Seller may defer further delivery of goods hereunder or may, at its option, cancel all further deliveries of goods to Buyer. In the event Seller is required to commence collection action to recover unpaid invoices of goods sold and delivered, Seller shall be entitled to attorney's fees and costs of suit.
3. Taxes: Any tax or other governmental charge upon the sale and/or shipment of the goods herein specified now imposed by Federal, State, or Local authorities, or hereafter becoming affective within the life of this contract, shall be added to the price of goods shown on the face hereof and shall be paid by Buyer.
4. Delivery, Title, Demurrage: The goods will be delivered on or about the date specified on the order acknowledgment. Seller's obligation to deliver on time is expressly made subject to the force majeure clause set forth herein. Title to the goods shall be transferred to Buyer at the time risk of loss to the goods is transferred from Seller to Buyer or any third party. If goods are delivered in conveyances owned or arranged for by Seller, Seller may assess demurrage charges to Buyer for any delivery equipment detained for Buyer's convenience beyond the free time allowed, at a rate in effect on the date of shipment as established by Seller or carrier, as the case may be.
5. Weights and Yardage: Seller's weights (or Seller's measurements in case of goods sold by volume or yardage) taken at shipping points, as stated in the invoice, shall control unless proved to be in error. Seller shall not honor & Buyer hereby waives claims for short delivery unless the total quantity of goods invoiced exceeds the total quantity of goods shipped by more than two (2) percent.
6. Warranties: The Seller warrants that the goods furnished hereunder shall meet the Seller's written specifications applicable to goods as in effect on the date of shipment. NO OTHER WARRANTY WHETHER EXPRESS OR ARISING BY OPERATION OF LAW OR FROM ANY COURSE OF DEALING OR TRADE USAGE OR OTHERWISE IMPLIED (INCLUDING THE WARRANTY OF MERCHANTABILITY AND FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE) SHALL EXIST in connection with sale, resale, or use of any of the Seller's goods. Seller shall in no event be liable for loss of profits or for special, incidental, punitive or consequential damages resulting from the delivery, non-delivery, sale, resale, or use of any Seller's goods whether or not claimed to be due to the Seller's negligence. Buyer assumes all risk whatsoever as to the result of the use of the goods purchased, whether used singly or in combination with other substances. If any model or sample was shown to Buyer, such was used merely to illustrate the general type and quality of the goods and not to represent or warrant that the goods would necessarily be of that type or nature. Buyer acknowledges and agrees that Seller's liability with respect to the goods shall be limited to replacement of goods in respect of which a claim is made or, at Seller's option, refund of an amount not to exceed the purchase price thereof. Claims hereunder must be made within sixty (60) days after delivery of the goods to Buyer (or, in case of non-delivery, within sixty (60) days after the date scheduled for delivery) and Seller must be given a reasonable opportunity to investigate each claim.
7. Indemnification: Buyer will indemnify Seller against all claims, loss, liability and expense (including but not limited to reasonable attorney fees) on account of any damage to property or injury or death of persons (including Buyer's employees) arising out of Buyer's unloading, storage, handling, use or disposal of the goods except for any portion of damages attribute to Seller's negligence. This indemnity obligation of buyer will survive the expiration, termination, or cancellation of this contract.

8. Force Majeure: In case performance of any terms or provisions hereof shall be delayed or prevented in whole or in part because of or related to compliance with any law, decree, request, or order of any governmental agency or authority, either local, state, or federal, or because of riots, war, public disturbance, strikes, lockouts, differences with workmen, fires, explosions, storms, floods, acts of God, accidents of navigation, breakdown, or failure of transportation, manufacturing, distribution, storage or processing facilities, failure of or interference with the manufacture, receiving, handling, delivery or consumption of the goods covered hereby, inability to obtain raw materials, fuel, power, labor, containers or transportation facilities, or commercial impracticability, or for any other reason (whether or not of the same class or kind as herein set forth) which is not within the control of the party whose performance is interfered with and which by the exercise of reasonable diligence said party is unable to prevent, the party so suffering may at its option suspend deliveries or receipts during the period such cause continues, and no liability shall attach against either party's account thereof. In the event of force majeure affecting Buyer, Buyer shall apportion its purchase among its suppliers of all similar goods, including its own departments and affiliates on an equitable basis. In the event of a force majeure affecting Seller, Seller may apportion its available supply of such goods among its purchases, including its own department and divisions, on an equitable basis without incurring liability for failure to perform these conditions of sale. When the delivery of goods has been prevented or delayed by any of the above causes, the quantity affected shall be deducted from the amount required to be supplied hereunder, with no obligation to make up that quantity. It is the parties' expectation that Seller shall supply goods from its own production and Seller shall not be required to acquire by purchase or otherwise, additional quantities of similar goods from other suppliers, or otherwise supplement its available supply of goods. The provision of this paragraph shall not be available to either party, which fails to use reasonable diligence to remedy the situation and remove the cause in the adequate manner, and with all reasonable dispatch. The requirement that any force majeure be remedied with all reasonable dispatch shall not require the settlement of strikes or labor controversies by acceding to the demands of the opposing party or parties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Buyer shall not be relieved of the obligation to pay for goods, title to which has passed to Buyer.
9. Patents, Technical Information: Seller reserves the right to discontinue deliveries of any goods, the manufacture, sale or use of which in its opinion would involve patent infringement.
